Dear Friends!

Last Sunday, we took a look at a woman who had issues and sought out Jesus to be healed. We also looked at the others in the crowd around her that were "pressed" in on Jesus - the suppressed, the oppressed, and the depressed. Yes, many in that crowd had issues! And many of us have issues, as well. I pray we all remember when we have issues that are pressing us to Whom we can reach! Jesus is still working things out for us, and He won't fail us.

This Sunday, we'll look at our own "callings" and how to stay focused on those callings. There are many distractions to keep us away from our ministries, so it is imperative that we become focused on what we're doing and why we're doing it. If you'd like to read ahead, look at II Corinthians 12:6-10 (Message) and Mark 6:1-13 (Message).

Whether you're in Los Angeles this week or not, I pray you have a wonderful holiday season. Some have reported that they don't feel much like celebrating the fourth this year. Thanks to a couple of my friends who suggested "mixing it up" on this July fourth: get ACTIVE with your calls for justice; make sure you're in a diverse group of people if you are out at a party; look for ways to MAKE A DIFFERENCE in the lives of those you reach this week. And then, come back to worship with us at FMCC this Sunday. I look forward to worship with you.

God Bless,

Rev. Keith Mozingo

Welcome First Time Visitor

We are honored that you are worshipping with us this morning. Our community is diverse and come from many different traditions, backgrounds and life situations. Wherever you are on your life or Spiritual Journey you are welcome at Founders MCC. Here are answers to a few common questions that we hope will make your visit more pleasant:

Greeting one another in Service

Following our opening song we pause to greet and welcome one another. Feel free to participate in these greetings as much or as little as you would like.

Social time following worship

Each Sunday we offer snacks and beverages following worship. It is a great way to get to know a few people and find answers to your questions. Social time usually takes place in Fellowship Hall (listed on the Helpful Information section) and on occasion in the court yard.

Video Recording

Our worship services are live streamed as well as archived on our website for international distribution. If you do not wish to be recorded, please sit in the rear right section of the main floor, pulpit side.

Communion

We serve communion each Sunday and it is open to everyone. We use wafers and unfermented grape juice.

- Ushers help direct when and where to go for communion
- Servers dip a small wafer in juice, serve you and offer a brief blessing
- You may serve yourself. Just let the server know your preference.
- You may ask for a blessing from the server without receiving the bread and juice.
- You may receive communion alone or with a loved one(s).
- You may also take communion without a server at the private station to the right of the pulpit on the main floor.
- You need not receive communion and may remain in your seat.
- You are invited to use this time for personal reflection or join in singing songs during communion.
