

EVELYN JOYCE LOACH-PRICE
GOING HOME CELEBRATION
SUNRISE 06/04/1941 SUNSET 02/23/25

Evelyn Joyce Loach-Price, age 83, of Los Angeles, California, passed away peacefully on February 23, 2025, at her home in Los Angeles. She was born on June 4, 1941 in Brooklyn NY.

Evelyn leaves behind the love of her life, Barbara Haynes; they spent fifty-four wonderful years together.

Evelyn is preceded in death by her beloved son, James Price; her parents, Mother Joyce Loach- Elmore, Father Edward (Smokey) Whitaker and Stepfather, John Elmore; and her sisters, Marilyn Caldona and Lois Chapman.

Evelyn is survived by her loving brothers, Cory Loach, Giovani Elmore, and Abraham Elmore, and her devoted sisters, Sondra Smith, Brenda Williams, Giovanna Elmore, and Sunshine Elmore. She also leaves behind a host of cherished nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews.

Though she attended nursing school, Evelyn's true calling was to share her deep faith. She was drawn to God, and she loved to spend hours sharing the gospel with friends and relatives, whether she was winning souls or strengthening foundations. Her passion for her faith was evident to all who knew her.

Evelyn also had a deep appreciation for the arts. She loved music and singing, and she found joy in the melodies that filled her life. Additionally, she was a sports enthusiast, finding excitement and camaraderie in her favorite teams The Raiders and the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Evelyn's warmth, love, and unwavering faith touched the lives of many, and she will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

A special thanks to all who loved her and filled her life with the wealth of Christ.
