

“Still Marching”

Dear Saints,

06-13-2026

Another week, another Pride celebration!

Last Saturday, we had a wonderful multilingual time of worship here at church. Rev. Eric Buter did an amazing job portraying Jonah for us in his production of, So THAT'S The Way To Nineveh? Thank you, Rev. Eric! (And thanks to Pastor Bam Noriega for portraying the Voice of God!)

Then, last Sunday, we had a grand time at the West Hollywood Pride Parade! Do take a look at the pictures on social media...we were OUT and PROUD! I want to thank all of you who worked behind the scenes to prepare the decorations and music! And, of course, thank you to all who marched with Pastor Bam and me, waving and shouting, "Happy Pride!" the whole route! I heard it was the very first Pride parade for several folks marching with us; I suspect it won't be their last!

This weekend will be similar in scheduling to last weekend. Our multilingual worship is on Saturday at 5:00 p.m. We have something special planned for the "sermon" time: the words of our founder, Rev. Troy Perry! I hope you'll join us. One difference this weekend is that some of our folks, led by Pastor Bam, will represent us with a booth at Santa Monica Pride on Saturday. If you're able to go for the morning shift there, you'll still have time to get to church on Saturday at 5:00! The theme for this Saturday's service is, Still Marching. If you'd like to read ahead, check out Matthew 9:35-38 (Voice Version).

Then, Sunday, we'll be back on the streets celebrating Los Angeles Pride in the Pride Parade and with a booth in the Pride Festival. The activities are completely free, so I hope we'll have a great turn-out. As you'll recall, the LA Pride is the original Pride Parade in the world, and it was started in 1970 by Rev. Troy Perry and two other community leaders to honor the events at Stonewall in New York City. Rev. Troy and the other leaders sued the city of Los Angeles to be able to hold the parade, and they won! We've had this annual parade ever since...this year is the 56th year!

As always, we have a lot to celebrate. Come, and join us!

Pastor Keith
